

FAIR TODAY; CLOUDY.
WARMER TOMORROW.

1796 1915
NORWICH, CONN., WEDNESDAY, JUNE 9, 1915.

Belin.

FULL ASSOCIATED PRESS DESPATCHES

What Is Going On Tonight

Vanderbilt and Motion Pictures at the Auditorium.
Moving Pictures at Colonial Theatre.
Vanderbilt and Photographs at the Davis Theatre.
Norwich Grange, No. 173, P. of H. meets in Pythian Hall.
Thames Council, 1851, R. A. meets in Foresters' Hall.
Norwich Lodge, A. O. U. W. meets in Germania Hall.
Sachem Chapter, No. 87, O. E. S. meets in Buckingham Memorial.

Connecticut Food Ship for Belgium

Over 1,500,000 women, children and other non-combatants are in the Belgian bread lines. Unless America is to let starve those whom she has saved until now, more food must be supplied.
The Connecticut committee of the commission for relief in Belgium has set to work to load a "Connecticut food ship" jointly with the international commission, which has agreed to meet whatever is raised here dollar for dollar. All administration expenses are guaranteed, the rest contributed will reach Belgium in the shape of food.
The commission has offered to meet whatever we raise, dollar for dollar. Connecticut's half of this shipload will cost approximately $100,000. The greater part must be secured in large subscriptions. Every dollar contributed will actually reach Belgium in the shape of food, without any diminution.
Gifts of money, large and small, may be sent either to William A. Aiken, Norwich, or to Charles C. Russ, state treasurer, care Hartford Trust company, Hartford.
SIMEON B. BALDWIN,
MARCUS H. HOLCOMB,
FRANK B. WEEKS,
Special Committee.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

DAVIS THEATRE.

Ben Loring's Big Musical Cabaret Making a Big Hit This Week.

A good clean show; that is the opinion of the thousands who visit the Davis this week, and nobody has been disappointed in the performance which the Ben Loring Musical Cabaret has given. The whole show is a mixture of good singing and clever comedy with nothing to offend the most refined taste. The new novel sketch called "The Awakening of Cleo," in which Mr. Loring and Miss Moran play the principal parts. This is followed by the "Dancing and dancing" in which every member of the company takes part. A special feature of the show is the singing of Miss Moran, the gifted soprano soloist, who has to respond to enclosures every time she sings. Other members of the company who have made a big hit are Miss Bagley, the pretty little novelty singer; Mr. Healy and Mr. Whitten, all of whom are old favorites having played here with the Homan show last season and their many friends are glad to see them back again.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Vitaphone Broadway Star Feature Film, "The Enemies," Three Reels.

Every motion picture theatregoer is familiar with the name Broadway Star Feature, and recognizes in it all that stands for the highest and best in motion pictures. The Broadway Star Feature is the only picture which the public of New York city. Today the Colonial theatre offers one of those superb attractions in "The Enemies," a fascinating story of love, life, life, photographic beauty, stirring action and splendid effects. The cast includes such well known actors as Harry Morey, Ned Finley, William Shea, Roger Lytton, Harry Northrup, and Lillian Herbert. The picture is supreme in every respect, and even fails to entertain and delight all the patrons today. A Tragedy of the Hills, the unusual and strange story of a man and a woman who live in a cave, and with such a big cast, it is bound to be one of the hits of the program.
Don't forget, tomorrow is Premium night, we absolutely give away 15 presents to the holders of the lucky coupons.

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

NORWICH TOWN

Stanley Vergason Recovering from Injury—Rehearsals for Children's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Vergason have returned to New London after visiting Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vergason of Huntington avenue. Mr. Vergason's fingers are healing nicely after an injury received two weeks ago.

Rehearsing for Children's Day.

There will be a rehearsal in the First Congregational chapel this (Wednesday) for Children's Sunday. The last rehearsal will be on Friday afternoon.

Heard and Seen.

Frank Gifford of New London visited relatives here and in Yantic during the week end.

After a week's visit at his home on Lafayette street, A. Gould Hunt left Saturday for Ulica, N. Y.

Walter Vergason, of Vergason avenue, has left for Waterbury, where he has secured employment.

Mrs. Frank Robinson has returned to New London, now at Jewett City, to visit with friends in Bridgeport.

Frank Blacker, a former resident of Norwich, now of Jewett City, visited friends here during the week end.

Mrs. L. E. Douglass, whose home is in Redbank, N. J., is visiting her brother, N. D. Chase of Otobando avenue.

Fremont Vergason of Vergason avenue is building an addition to his house of a few rooms, one of which will be a kitchen.

Miss Eleanor Ashe has completed her year of study at the Norwich Art school and returned to her home in Pomfret for the vacation.

After two weeks' visit with Mrs. Frank L. Weaver of Yantic, Mrs. Charlotte Rushworth has returned to her home in Greenfield.

Mrs. Gordon Mead and little daughter, of Melrose Highlands, Mass., are guests of Mrs. H. L. Yerrington, of Washington street. Mrs. Mead was formerly Miss Lillian Newman, a teacher in the Academy.

EAST SIDE ITEMS

Mrs. John R. Fowler has returned to her home on Main street after two weeks' visit with relatives in Worcester and Boston.

Ernest Williamson of New Haven spent the week end with his sisters, Misses Eleanor and Harriet Williamson, on Main street.

Mrs. Isaac Cook of Penobscot street spent Sunday as the guest of Montville friends.

Carl Brend is employed in New London.

Miss Mae Fisher of Lebanon spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fisher, of the Cornington road.

Ernest William Storms, who has been confined to her home for the past month, ill with pleurisy, is slowly improving.

Peculiar Aversions.

Robert Boyle, the philosopher, could never overcome his aversion to the sound of water splashing from a pipe, and he has put on record the case of one of his servants, who could never hear hearing a knife being sharpened or a sheet of brown paper torn without bleeding at the gums.

teen cash prizes from $1 to $5 will be given away at that time.

Moose Carnival.

Everything is being put into readiness for the monster Moose carnival and first anniversary celebration next week. The advance payments on the Krause Greater Shows, who are to furnish the attractions, arrived in the city Monday evening. The numerous advertising and publicity campaigns.

The Moose are looking forward to a big week they anticipate even a bigger success than they had last year. The Krause Greater Shows, who are to furnish the attractions, are reputed as being not only one of the largest, but the cleanest and best organization of its kind in existence.

Besides the many features connected with the Moose carnival there will be a big parade and street demonstration. The parade will start from the Krause Greater Shows, starting from the Krause Greater Shows, and finishing at the carnival grounds. It is expected that the parade will be one of the largest in the history of the city.

The various contests are going along nicely. The first voting in the Queen of the Carnival contest took place yesterday. The first 1,000 votes offered to the winner having the largest amount at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning. One $10, was awarded to Miss Rose Noyes.

Upon arrival Sunday the Krause Greater Shows' concert band will render a free open-air operatic and sacred concert.

The voting boxes for the Moose contest are located at Platt-Cadden's and Ferguson's jewelry store. A full accounting and list of contestants will appear in tomorrow's issue.

Academy Orchestra Concert.

At the concert of the Academy orchestra to be given in Slater Memorial hall on Friday evening next, three school organizations, which have already won much public favor, will assist. The Girls' Glee club, with forty members has established a very high standard of choral singing and have many changes in the cast. The George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre, New York city, one of the biggest vaudeville houses there, a couple of weeks ago and made such a strong impression that they were immediately booked for a return engagement for the week of June 14th and will go there directly on leaving here next Sunday. It is one of the newest and cleanest shows that the patrons of the Auditorium have ever seen there and contains many pretty novelty numbers and many changes in the cast. The new George and Edith LaFevre introduce several beautiful dancing numbers during the show and always win a big hand for their dancing. The new My Little Girl number, in which the entire company takes part, singing part of the songs and the whole audience and also making use of a run from the stage over the backs of the seats and the audience, which the chorus of the song is printed, is lowered onto the stage and the whole audience is asked to join in the singing of it. There will be an entire change of photographs today and the two reel feature will be No. 229, a powerful melodramatic story of a wrongfully imprisoned man, featuring Murdock MacQuarrie, the exceptionally clever dramatic actor. An L-KO comedy entitled Shaved in Mexico, will also be shown.
Owing to the success of the cash prize night, which the management ran a short time ago, another will be given on this Friday evening and first

AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Another fine musical comedy show is appearing at this theatre again this week in the "Midnight Cabaret," with Weston and Keith in the leading roles and the whole company singing about it. This same company appearing at the Union Square theatre